

We're Hiring!

Position Title: Electrical Engineer

$75,000 or higher Full-Time with benefits.

- Participate in research planning and development for seismic, GPR, drilling, water-level, earthquake, land surveying, and logging projects/programs at the KGS.
- Designs and implements microcomputer/microcontroller systems/software as well as electronic and mechanical devices for the testing of advanced geophysical data acquisition and processing research.
- Act as an electronic specialist, evaluate and compare, often without the aid of schematics or other technical information.
- Oversee and facilitate in preparing, updating, delivering, and retrieving electronic field systems for KGS and collaborators on annual water-level program.
- Participate with data recording, transfer operations, and data management for Kansas earthquake network.

For more information and to apply:

10/28/2022