Special Interests/About Me

I am an intrinsically motivated person. I strive to achieve any goal set by myself or by anyone whom might influence me whether that be a boss, my parents, or a teacher. I enjoy music, both as an artist and as a fan. I currently march in the KU Marching Band, playing sousaphone, which is both physically and mentally taxing but is very rewarding. Outside of marching band, I enjoy playing drums in various bands, most of which play shows at various venues. Photography is another passion of mine. I've considered myself a photographer for 4 years now, having compiled many noteworthy photos and having done many senior photos, personal photo shoots, and family photo shoots. Another activity I enjoy is rock climbing which is physically very challenging and is even more so mentally. Pushing myself to make it to the top is a grueling, yet rewarding task.
