Greenhorn Limestone contains the following four cross section, stratigraphic column, report, and significant changes to the topographic quadrangle maps. Contacts were then converted to GIS form at, smooth the arcs. The NED data were modified by the National Hydrography are presented for general reference. They were generated from 1/3 arc-second hillshade, a multidirectional shaded-relief image using angles of illumination National Elevation Dataset (NED) digital elevation models (DEMs), filtered to typically reflect topographic variation more accurately than the associated NCGMP in part under StateMap award numbers G15AC002258 (FY2015) and. This map is a preliminary product and has had less scientific and cartographic compilation of the Lincoln County map. The geology was}

REFERENCES

sp. and

Inoceramus

...